

Beth Schafer

Bunzl Family Cantorial Chair

Bschafer@templesinaiatlanta.org

BAS 1)..... Storytellers with Beth Schafer

Enjoy a private concert with Beth, filled with a mix of Beth's compositions and other inspirational music. You'll hear stories behind her favorite songs!

BAS 2)..... Positive Jewish Living

Using Jewish text and practice, we will learn how to live lives that are both inspired and inspiring.

BAS 3)..... Kumsitz

Let's create music together! Participants are invited to bring any and all instruments for a fun jam fest.

BAS 4)..... You Can't Take It With You

"Making What We Leave Behind Matter." Learn how to craft an ethical will that offers guidance and direction for future generations.

BAS 5).....Bringing It Home: Praying In Your Personal Sanctuary

Beth will come to your home and lead a service of your choosing. Whether a celebratory service or a healing service to calm the soul, experience the impact of praying in your own home.

Marisa Kaiser Director of Education

Mkaiser@templesinaiatlanta.org

MK 1).....Raising Mentches!

Are we raising a mentche (good person)? How can we use Jewish values as a guide in our parenting practices to ensure our children will be kind, generous, loving and help to make the world a better place?

MK 2)....."How To Series"

How can we bring Jewish holidays into our homes in an easy, meaningful way for ourselves and for our children? Choose the holiday to learn about with your friends.

MK 3).....The Future of Jewish Education

Together, we will explore the history of Jewish education in America, how it has transformed and what Jewish education will look like in the future.

Take Out Judaism

Courtesy of Temple Sinai

Instructions

T$1).....Choose Course

Congregants are invited to peruse the menu of course options. For planning purposes, each course lasts approximately 1 hour, not including time allocated for dinner and schmoozing.

T$2).....Email

When ready to "place an order," the host should email the teacher directly to determine a mutually acceptable date and time for the course.

T$3).....Food

Hosts are invited to order Chinese food for delivery (or pickup if preferred) from a restaurant of choice – no pork or shellfish, please. Temple Sinai will contribute $100 toward the cost of dinner.

T$4).....Class Size

A minimum of ten participants is requested in order to place a course order.

Your Journey. Your Home.

Dine In - Take Out - Eat & Run - Kosher Style
Free Range Chicken - No GMO's - 100% Veg. Oil

Rabbi Ronald Segal

Rsegal@templesinaiatlanta.org

RR 1).....Jewish Mysticism for Beginners

If concepts like “greeting the Sabbath bride,” “Lurianic kabbalah,” and “Sefirot” are all Greek to you, this class will provide an introduction about these and other ideas connected to Jewish mysticism.

RR 2).....Bible from the Mouths of Comedians

Using audio and written materials, prepare for an evening of laughter as we experience biblical tradition presented in humorous ways.

RR 3).....What in the world am I praying?

Barechu, Shema, Mi Chamocha, Amidah... Want to better understand what we are saying during services? This course offers a helpful explanation of the prayers and how it all fits together.

RR 4).....What Happens after I Die? (On one foot)

“What happens after we die?” is the most common question rabbis are asked, a question which has many Jewish answers. This course will introduce a variety of authentic Jewish understandings.

RR 5).....All you need is ‘la’

Sometimes, words just get in the way of spirituality... The course will explore how the Hasidic masters changed the world of prayer and spiritual growth in Judaism through the practice of niggun – wordless and beautiful melodies intended to open the heart and draw one closer to God.

Rabbi Bradley Levenberg

Blevenberg@templesinaiatlanta.org

RB 1).....Ask Me Anything

Got an ethical dilemma? A question about business or Judaism? Questions will be solicited in advance and Rabbi Brad will present Responsa Literature that helps us to understand the answers and the nuances BEHIND the conclusions! “Off the cuff” questions will also be welcome!

RB 2).....Jewpardy!

Are you smarter than a 5th grader? It's like Game Night, only Jewish! Rabbi Brad will bring the game to your home for a fun night of competition about Jewish topics! (A TV is needed for this topic.)

RB 3).....The Secret of Life

This course will explore and sift through the dimensions and discussions of life...and how to unlock its secrets.

RB 4).....Rock & Torah

Rabbi Brad will bring music, from the 60s-today, to help us better understand the Torah and some of the more popular teachings.

Rabbi Elana Perry

Eperry@templesinaiatlanta.org

RE 1).....Jews & Food

What does Jewish text have to say about our relationship to food, our most basic form of sustenance? What is the meaning behind and contemporary relevance of kashrut? Are there particular foods that contain special spiritual significance? Can schmaltz be justified in an era of healthy eating?

RE 2).....Judaism & Romance

What does Jewish text have to say about love and romantic relationships? You might be surprised to learn what the ancient rabbis had to say about sex, courtship and gender equality. Find out how Jewish tradition can help you find your mojo!

RE 3).....A Poet's View of Modern Israel

History books and newspaper articles may teach us about events taking place in Israel, but can they adequately convey the emotions of the Israeli people as they navigate the modern Israeli experience? Yehuda Amichai (1924-2000), perhaps the greatest modern Israeli poet, gives voice to those emotions. This poetic exploration will not only give us a true taste of Israeli life, but it will also inspire us to find deeper connections to Israel, Judaism and language itself.

RE 4).....What Will Be Your Legacy?

This is a question that concerns all of us, regardless of our age, religion, gender, or ethnicity. By interpreting various kinds of “texts,” both Jewish and secular, we will begin to explore the notion of a personal legacy, a topic that truly matters in our lives and one that can lead to meaningful personal growth.